Handmade Canadian pottery in Kamloops, British Columbia.

"I am a full-time potter, making each piece with the intention for you to fall in love and enjoy for years. All items in my shop are created by myself. I use only Canadian clay for my pottery, and make the glazes from scratch so that I have unique glaze finishes and colors. I make most items on the wheel, some items are handbuilt, such as patters for unique shapes that cannot be made on the wheel. I do take custom requests from time to time, if it's something within my skillset. Please do not hesitate to ask if you have a special request.
